

MAY 12, 2021

Nikon | LEARN &
EXPLORE

INTERMEDIATE

Using Fast Shutter Speeds for Action Photos

A tip from Nikon Ambassador Lucas Gilman

“ When shooting sports, set your shutter speed at least 1/3000 second or faster, especially when you’re shooting in snow or on the water. At these shutter speeds, every snow flake and every water droplet will be tack sharp. ”

To see more of Lucas Gilman’s photography, visit his website at www.lucasgilman.com.