

JULY 19, 2018

Nikon | LEARN &
EXPLORE

BEGINNER

Using Live View to Select White Balance

Not sure which white balance setting to use in a certain situation? Try this tip: turn on Live View and go to the white balance setting and scroll through the various options. You'll be able to see how each one looks on the LCD. Try this when you want to creatively alter your white balance to see which will give you the best look for the image.